MCI announces Bond Adapt Online

MCI Consultants, the exclusive distributor for Bond International Software in South Africa and the largest distributor of staffing software in South Africa, today announced the availability of Bond Adapt online; the Web-based hosted solution of the world's most advanced recruiting system which is currently utilised by all of the world's top ten recruiting firms.

“We have been providing Adapt-based solutions to our clients in SA for over 15 years,” commented Rhett Davies, Partner of MCI Consultants, “and this latest version provides a capability of users being able to utilise the software on a ‘Software as a Service’ (SaaS) basis without the loss of any of the previous functionality.”

“This latest version is easy to deploy and easy to run; and can be mobile-enabled thus providing an access capability from anywhere and at any time,” continued Davies, “Adapt deals with the entire placement cycle from recording client, candidate and vacancy detail; through to CV parsing, letter and email generation, submissions, placements and follow up requirements. Detailed reports on any information stored within the system can be quickly and easily accessed at any time, including displaying it as a dashboard thus ensuring that managers always have a complete picture of their consultants’ productivity and their business’ overall performance.”

“The system's integration with the Internet, including all major social networks, job boards and Microsoft Outlook, caters for controlled access by candidates and clients and provides them with an unprecedented level of service,” concluded Davies. “Thus by focusing time on more profitable areas, Adapt can improve the productivity of both individuals and teams, as well as giving a fast ROI with low and predictable operating expenses.”
