MCI Pledges 30 Boxes for The Santa Shoebox Project

For the third year running, MCI Consultants pledged and packed boxes to be dropped off with The Santa Shoebox Project, an organisation that collects and distributes gifts at Christmas time to more than 1000 recipient facilities throughout South Africa and Namibia.

“Donors are asked to wrap or decorate a shoebox and fill it with goodies for underprivileged children who may not otherwise even receive a gift.” commented Gabbi De Brito, Marketing Manager at MCI. “This project is such a wonderful initiative and we are very happy to be able to contribute. We have lovingly packed each box with all of the required items including toys, sweets, educational supplies, clothing and hygiene essentials and hope that they put a smile on some little faces this Christmas!”
