

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCI Consultants turns 20

MCI Consultants, a dynamic business information systems consulting firm, recently celebrated its 20th birthday.

Since its founding in July 1995 by Steven Bernard and Aliko Droussiotis, MCI has achieved consistent growth and evolved to provide a full complement of I.T solutions for clients across a broad range of industries, including, inter alia, banking, mining, aviation and food and beverage not only in South Africa, but also across Africa as well as in the Middle East and in Central and South America.

"We are proud to say that more than 60% of our staff has been with us for 10 years," commented Aliko Droussiotis. "and would like to thank them and our valued clients for their continued support."
